Robots have never been closer to us. Nowadays, wearable assistive devices and surgical robots are in widespread clinical use. In this talk, Dr. Wang will tell us about the essentials of medical robot design. Recent advances in soft robotics will also be highlighted.